NEWS REVIEW 2015

Oxfordshire Guardian reporters Loughlan Campbell and Alex Ballinger take a look back at what has happened in 2015

Showbiz

OXFORDSHIRE S lnks to the rich and famous grew this year with some high profile names visiting

By far the most extravagant appearance was Dame Vivienne Westwood showing up at Prime Minister David Cameron s West Oxfordshire home in a tank.

The fashion designer joined a Lancashire anti fracking group to protest the controversial drilling process in September

Mr Cameron was not at his home in Dean at the time

Rumours also began to circulate about two more A list stars joining actor George Clooney as residents of South Oxfordshire

Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie were reportedly looking at a house in Sonning Eye near Henley, although the rumours don t appear to have bore any fruit

Taking their first steps on the path to stardom this year was girlband PYT of which three of the five members are from Oxfordshire

They reached the last 10 groups in ITV s X Factor singing talent contest but bowed out before the finals

The band is made up of Amy Nash 18 of Jericho, Renetta Eagle 20 from Headington Ebony Cantwell 17 of Wantage and London based members Tonia Gigli, 21, and Naomi Mulumbala 21

The girls went on to perform with Jake Quickenden and S Club 7 for Halloween

Also on the road to success is a Headington youngster who sealed a major Hollywood role as a stunt double

Max Webb and dad Vince

Max Webb 13 is a super talented free runner

He threw caution to the wind as a stunt double for the main character and a second role, for which he needed to wear a motion capture suit The film remains a mystery as Mas was under strict orders not to reveal the title But we await the grand premiere

From starting a showbiz journey to one on its last legs long running detective series Lewis based in Oxford, announced it would be coming to an end after almost 10 years of sleuthing

The show first aired in 2006 and featured some of Oxford s best known buildings including the Randolph Hotel and Ashmolean Museum

Lewis star Kevin Whately said I feel incredibly fortunate to have a shared a decade of fantastic worldwide success with [co star] Laurence and with the most brilliant crew, cast and production team anyone could wish for"

Politics

BY far the biggest political moment in Oxfordshire this year was the 2015 General Election as the Conservative Party won enough seats to gain an overall majority in Parliament and keep Witney MP David Cameron in the Prime Minister s seat for another five years

Across the county there were no changes to the six parliamentary seats, with David Cameron maintaining the safe Witney seat.

For Oxford West and Abingdon Nicola Blackwood held firm after a previously tight battle with second place Liberal Democrat Layla Moran.

Ed Vaizey held the Wantage and Didcot constituency and John Howell also held Henley

Victoria Prentis also secured the Banbury seat after taking over as Conservative candidate from Sir Tony Baldry

Oxfordshire s only Labour MP Andrew Smith retained his Oxford East constituency once again.

The county was also treated to a number of high profile visits from political figures including Green Party leader Natalie Bennett

She visited sites around Oxford including charity Asylum Welcome who help support asylum seekers arriving in Oxfordshire.

David Cameron found himself under the spotlight after he wrote a letter to Oxfordshire County Council leader Ian Hudspeth to say he was disappointed with proposed cuts to frontline services

Mr Cameron also allegedly offered Downing Street advisors to help the council find better cost cutting measures in his response which led to him being accused of breaking ministerial rules by favouring Oxfordshire

WALLINGFORD: Some leaders criticise South Oxfordshire District Council for delaying a decision on a controversial plans for 85 homes

August

OXFORD: A year after a £75 million masterplan to revamp Oxford station is announced, Network Rail admits there is still no cash to fund the build.

Building

THE year's biggest development story that springs to mind has got to be the start of demolition and building work on Oxford's new Westgate Shopping Centre, being redeveloped to the tune of £440 million.

Cranes and diggers moved on site to start the build in February and began with bulldozing the multi storey off Norfolk Street to dig down and create an underground car park.

Westgate's shops are shutting between January and Spring bar Sainsbury's and Oxford Central Library – as the build progresses on 100 extra shops including a John Lewis department store and cinema.

Developers Westgate Oxford Alliance also gave a predicted opening date of October 2017 as it was announced renovation work is running smoothly and even ahead of schedule.

Outside of Oxford, Didcot became a battleground for planned developments.

A £50 million expansion of the Orchard Centre was approved despite fears about opening up a pedestrianised square to become a new bus route.

In Woodstock plans to build 1,200 homes were rejected by councillors in October sparking celebrations by protestors campaigning against the project.

Meanwhile in Wantage and Grove the Grove Airfield development was a story of successive delays.

A deal which needs to be signed by landowners, developers and the council has still not been agreed. Developers Taylor Wimpey had been hoping to start building the 1,500-home development next year.

A controversial 159 home development in south Abingdon's Drayton Road was approved in March despite a two year battle by residents while plans for 91 homes on the site of CABI headquarters in Wallingford went in.

Finally back in Oxford, work began on 885-homes at Barton Park in May with work set to finish in late 2016.

Transport

IMPROVING travel connections was a huge topic in the county across 2015 with a number of road and railway works starting or continuing.

The big new arrival for Oxfordshire transport was the opening of the £136 million Oxford Parkway station next to Water Eaton Park & Ride in October.

The track was the first new line built between London and a major city since 1899, with the station containing 1 500 parking spaces and 150 bike parking spaces.

The service runs six commuter trains to London before 9am from Monday to Friday and was heralded as a "momentous moment" by commuters at the time of its unveiling.

A new upgraded station at Bicester named Bicester Village Station was also unveiled at the same time, which will run direct trains on the same route to London Marlylebone.

Drivers were then warned to expect more than a year of delays after a £9m overhaul of the Wolvercote and Cutteslowe roundabouts in North Oxford got underway in July.

The work, not due to be completed until November 2016, will see both junctions be traffic light controlled, the approaches widened and new pedestrian and cycle crossings added.

Work on the roundabouts already completed included altering Jackson Road and the resurfacing of the A40 westbound and A44 northbound roads.

Oxford's Frideswide Square also experienced a complete £5.8m transformation.

Work started in February and finished in December but caused plenty of traffic jams in Oxford's city centre whilst work was being carried out.

Outside Oxford railway station there is now a tree lined boulevard to mini roundabouts in front of the Royal Oxford Hotel.

Oxfordshire County Council (OCC) also pledged £35m for A40 improvements, such as turning the road into a dual carriageway in order to solve problems on the major link road.

The work was pencilled in by OCC to begin work in 2017 with a new bus lane, park and ride at Eynsham and junction revamps proposed.

And work on a £11m hamburger roundabout at Didcot's Milton Interchange is ongoing having started in January.

Design options were also unveiled for a complete redevelopment of Oxford Station.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director James Miller feels that it's all about service. "Our promise is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window in any type of frame, and with a three or 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money although that obviously helps.

Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a majority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way is very sad for the service industry as a whole.

Cloudy2Clear service Oxfordshire from their local depots and James is of the view that his approach is a major factor in his success. "The truths that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated."

So if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give James a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

NEWS REVIEW 2015

Crime

A TRIPLE murder in Oxfordshire dominated national headlines in May when 21-year old Jed Allen from Didcot killed his mum, her partner and his half sister

Allen stabbed Janet Jordon 48, her partner Philip Howard, 44 and their six-year-old daughter Derin Jordon at their home in Vicarage Road, Didcot

He then took the train to Oxford where he hanged himself in a field near Marston Ferry Road the same day

Also among the most shocking moments of 2015 was when a 26-year-old woman from Abingdon was shot in the head with a shotgun outside a block of flats in the town.

Kerry Reeves died in Oxford's John Radcliffe Hospital from her injuries two days later

Hundreds of tributes have been paid to her from friends, family, and strangers as shock waves from the brutal murder were felt across town.

Two men were arrested on suspicion of her murder and are to stand trial at Oxford Crown Court in 2016

Unfortunately the list of horrifying crimes goes on

Also in Abingdon 61 year old Jushin Skrebowski was stabbed to death while shopping in Poundland

A police chase ensued through the town centre and a suspect was tazered and arrested by police

Trevor Joyce, 36, of Franklyn Close Abingdon is charged with his murder and a court trial is expected in 2016

From the horrific to the deeply disturbing.

An accident and emergency nurse who filmed himself raping two unconscious patients in the John Radcliffe Hospital was jailed for 16 years

Andrew Hutchinson, 29 from Garford near Abingdon was sentenced for 27 offences against 29 different women and girls

The rapes took place in the hospital's A&E department in October 2011 and February 2012

Other offences included voyeurism at Abingdon's White Horse Leisure Centre and two sexual assaults at the Wilderness Festival's medical tent at Cornbury Park in 2013

Earlier in the year police and city leaders apologised for the serious failings in dealing with child sexual exploitation in Oxford after the publication of a damning report

The Oxfordshire Safeguarding Children Board published a serious case review into the experiences of six young girls and said numerous opportunities to stop street grooming had been missed

The report also said a total of 373 girls are believed to have been sexually exploited in the county over the last 16 years

The report came after seven men were jailed for almost 100 years for 59 offences relating to child sexual abuse in May 2013 as part of the Operation Bullfinch investigation

Editor's pick of the pages

2015

Group Editor Katriona Ormiston shares her choice of the Oxfordshire Guardian's best front pages from 2015

Throughout the year we have written produced and printed 318 Oxfordshire Guardians.

That is six editions for each week of the 53 weeks in 2015.

So picking just one front page from each of the six editions has proven pretty difficult.

But here goes my favourite fronts from the Oxford city Wallingford Wantage and Grove, Didcot Abingdon and Witney and Carterton editions.

Before delving into why some of the front pages were chosen I want to make clear they were not chosen because they are 'good' news in that what has happened is nice.

Far from it sometimes.

But they are examples of good reporting to do justice to a story that people need to hear.

OXFORD October 29-November 4 This page has a mix of two strong city focused stories. The main story sheds light for the first time how the renovation of Oxford's biggest shopping centre would impact Westgate's existing shops. And the new Parkway station was opened by Prime Minister David Cameron.

WALLINGFORD June 4-June 10 For almost six months residents across Oxfordshire had been trying to figure out what happened the morning of January 15 to cause the destruction of South Oxfordshire District Council's headquarters. This is the front page about full story coming out for the first time at Oxford Crown Court.

WANTAGE AND GROVE February 19-25 An uplifting story about a teenager's synchro swimming success is juxtaposed by a hard news article revealing the significant cash contributions to come from the development of Grove Airfield. The striking photo rounds off the page.

Didcot Abingdon and Witney and Carterton are all towns that have had to deal with more than their fair share of tough news.

All three of these fronts are about children and parents whose lives were stolen decades short.

But in each case there is positivity to take from them of Didcot residents and beyond coming together to remember the victims with ribbons which still serve as a reminder of them across the town today of a charity formed to battle the brutal illness which took Skye Hall's life, and of 14-year-old Liberty Baker, gone but not forgotten.

Her family and friends organised a fitting tribute one year on from her death in June.

LibFest saw hundreds of people gather at the The Leys to celebrate Liberty's love of music and sport and the festival is back next year on Saturday June 25.

DIDCOT May 28-June 3 Amid the shocking triple murder of a Didcot family the town banded together to try and remember them respectfully while trying to understand why a fourth member of the family was the key suspect. Ribbons tied to trees and lampposts paid tribute to the victims.

ABINGDON August 6-August 12 A family hit by the tragedy of losing five-year-old Skye Hall far too young responded with strength and composure, launching a charity that could truly if it hasn't already change and save lives. Blue Skye Thinking was awarded by the Prime Minister for its work after just one year.

WITNEY AND CARTERTON April 23-April 29 This front is included because it is a story which captured peoples' compassion across Oxfordshire. A family was torn apart by 14-year-old Liberty's death, but her character lives on in their memory the memory of her friends, and even strangers.

WIN tickets to the unmissable London Classic Car Show

A spectacular new international classic car show took the country by storm last January – now it's back even bigger and even better than ever before. And you could be there too as we have five pairs of Sunday tickets to giveaway in this very special promotion

Staged at the ultra modern ExCeL exhibition centre in Docklands from 18-21 February 2016, the London Classic Car is the capital's biggest and best celebration of automotive history.

Crammed with innovative features, mouth watering classic cars plus a star studded list of celebrity visitors, the inaugural show was such a resounding success that the follow up will be nearly twice as big.

The event's centrepiece is the 'The Grand Avenue' a central boulevard along which many iconic classics are driven. Everything from genuine Formula 1 Grand Prix racers to some of the most sought after supercars from yesteryear take to the high octane catwalk allowing visitors to see and hear their favourites in action. For 2016 The Grand Avenue will be even grander with a significant increase in track distance.

Another of the eye-catching additions for 2016 is an entire new hall dedicated to prestige and performance classics with privately owned examples representing the country's 25 leading car clubs helping to create an entire show within a show. Visitors, too, will be treated to period entertainment to continue the hall's retro vibe.

Tickets are now available from the official show website www.thelondonclassiccarshow.co.uk. Adult admittance – if tickets are purchased in advance – is priced at just £23.

Closing date: Friday February 5

Kicking off 2016 in style

BEAT off January blues in Wantage when Roughcut Ruby takes The Bay Tree stage on Friday, January 8

The four piece covers band has already put Christmas behind them to get gigging again.

Richard Horrocks on bass, Paul Haines on drums, Helen Harrison as the vocalist and Jim Smith on guitar will be in Newbury Street.

Roughcut Ruby already has three gigs lined up for this month, and another seven throughout the year.

> When the band is in sync and it all comes together... it is just the best feeling in the world

By James Richings

"When the band is in sync and when it all comes together, you can just look right into the audience's eyes like you can in small venues and it is just the best feeling in the world, there is a real connection," Jim told the Guardian.

"We try to play a wider range than some covers bands.

"With female and male vocals, you'll be hearing some of the best from K.T. Tunstall, Stevie Wonder, Alanis Morrisette, The Doobie Brothers, Amy Winehouse, Scissor Sisters as well as the old classics we all love."

The Witney based band, who will be playing at the Wantage pub for the very first time, are a popular group across Oxfordshire.

Their lively gigs, use of audience interaction and on stage chemistry has seen the group gain a fanbase.

Richard, Paul, Helen and Jim entertain the county on a part-time basis, alongside their day jobs.

"We all just play for fun," Jim revealed.

"I have been an electronics and computer engineer all my life in Formula 1 and in the music business, working for some of the big London studios and audio equipment manufacturers.

"The other two guys are also engineers and now we have Helen who works at Satellite Applications Catapult in Harwell."

He added: "We do record some of our work.

"I would love to have the time to write but with limited time for music, I prefer to practice and gig with the band.

"We haven't played at the Bay Tree before so it is always good to find a new audience and some more new friends."

Quadrophenia

A THEMED club night at Oxford's O2 Academy will throwback to 1978 coming of age film Quadrophenia on Saturday January 9.

Music will be based on tunes in the flick performed by bands and musicians such as The Attantics and Drew Stansall.

It starts at 8pm and tickets cost £14.62 and is for over 18s.

Open mic night

DIDCOT Cornerstone Arts Centre's open mic night is back on Tuesday January 12 after the Christmas break.

It is held on the second Tuesday of each month and gives local comedians, poets, musicians and storytellers the chance to share their talents.

The free event starts at 7.30pm.

A night of covers

OXFORD covers band Back in 4 will be performing their first gig of 2016 at the Cowley Workers' Social Club on Saturday January 2.

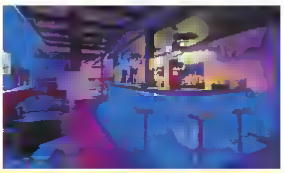
The four piece group, who formed in 2013, will be at the Between Towns Road venue to perform hits from the 60s to the present day.

The free event starts at 9pm.

ADVERTORIAL

B&N Coronet Bingo

Coronet Bingo Club in Didcot has recently undergone a major refurbishment offering superb new modern facilities in keeping with the art deco feel of the original building. In 2014 the Government cut Bingo tax with a proviso that clubs would reinvest that money into their businesses. Coronet Bingo has done just that renovating the front of the building and upgrading the foyer, toilets, food kiosk and fruit machine zones. The centre piece is the new Lounge Bar that is segregated from the main hall creating a stylish and contemporary space to enjoy before, during and after Bingo. Manager Laurie Carpenter said "Earlier this year we offered a survey to our customers asking what they liked and what they didn't about our club. This revamp of the club and the new games that we offer is in response to those answers. The Coronet has been in my family for over 35 years and I would hope our customers can enjoy these new facilities for many years to come."



- Biggest ever win in our club was £392k
- Every session we play for prizes up to £250k
- Every week we have many winners walking away with prizes into the thousands of pounds. Last week alone we paid out just under £30k
- Bingo is a social activity for people of all ages from 18-80 and beyond! The club is not only run by 3 generations of family but we often have 3 generations of family playing here together

Behind the curtains for 2016

THE last 12 months have seen hundreds of different musicians, comedians, musicals and operas command the stage at Oxford's theatres

But now is not the time to look back.

What does the first month of the New Year have up its sleeve?

The Oxford Playhouse kicks off its 2016 entertainment with one-man show 'The Trials of Galileo' from

By James Richings

January 7 until January 9

Performed by Royal Shakespeare Company actor Tim Hardy the play is based the dramatic events surrounding Galileo's trial after he proved that planets orbit the sun.

Canadian comedian Katherine Ryan will also visit the Oxford Playhouse on January 10. The 32 year old Oxfordshire regular is bringing her 'Kathbum' tour to the theatre on the same day as the Oxford Jazz Masters Series return to the Playhouse.

Ending the month at the Playhouse will be Hammersmith born comedian Josh Widdicombe with his 'What Do I Do Now' UK tour.

Meanwhile at the New Theatre- David Walliams award winning book, 'Gangsta Granny' will be brought to life from January 12 to January 16.

Ben knows Friday night staying with Granny means eating cabbage soup cabbage pie and cabbage cake, but he doesn't count on the adventure of a lifetime with his very own Gangsta Granny.

Comedian, actor and author David Walliams said: "I am over the moon that 'Gangsta Granny' is coming to the stage. It's the most popular of all my books and I am sure this production by the brilliant Birmingham Stage Company will delight not just children but their parents and of course grandparents."

The Now Theatre will also see The Johnny Cash Roadshow arrive on January 19, and former X Factor runner up Rebecca Ferguson stops off on January 22 after the release of her third album 'Lady Sings the Blues'.

And American actor and producer David Hasselhoff is jetting across the Atlantic to make an appearance at the New Theatre in January 2016 as he stars in the brand new musical 'Last Night a DJ Saved My Life' from January 26 to January 30.

The Hoff plays a single dad who works as a DJ and night club owner in Ibiza but his daughter shows up and one of his gigs to party and meet boys.

And the final act at the New Theatre for January will see multi-instrumentalist and former Squeeze member Paul Carrack arrive in Oxford on January 31.

The Old Fire Station in Oxford is also hosting its monthly improv session on January 19 for musicians to meet up and play fresh new music.

• Paul Carrack will be at The New Theatre on January 31

Banbury's Supreme Queen

ONE of the world's longest running Queen tribute bands will be at The Mill Arts Centre in Banbury on Saturday January 9.

Scott Maley will star as Freddie Mercury in 'Supreme Queen' for a Spiceball Park audience to relive some of Queen's finest moments before Mercury's death in 1991.

"It is a very authentic show" said Scott, who has been involved in various Queen incarnations over the years.

"We all work hard to deliver a dazzling performance that do the songs justice."

Following a successful 2015 that saw the tribute band perform 27 successful shows across the country Scott hopes 2016 can follow in its footsteps.

Musician Nathan Mathers will be portraying legendry Queen guitarist Brian May.

It is a complete show" 46 year old Scott said.

"It is not just one or two numbers Queen were a theatre band and so we try and reflect that.

"Having grown up with classic albums such as 'A Night at the Opera' and 'A Day at the Races', I have always been a huge fan.

"I have done this now for 28 years and it's part of me now that I've been doing it so long."

The Spiceball Park gig will start at 8pm and tickets cost £18.50.

The Big River Band on New Year's Eve

MUSICAL duo Renee Sears and Gerry Power will be ending 2015 on a high note at The Fish in Sutton Courtenay tonight New Year's Eve.

By James Richings

The Big River Band arrives at the restaurant/pub as a slightly scaled down two piece rather than the full five with a jazz set through dinner followed by party music.

In previous years the audience has enjoyed listening to live music instead of a disco and they can also have fun dancing or singing along, so hopefully this year will be no exception," Renee told the Guardian.

"Hopefully they will want to see and hear more live musicians in the future if they don't normally.

"We hope it will be a pleasant evening for them."

The band has been performing in and around Oxfordshire throughout the month.

Renee added "We will be performing mainly covers this time but we have some very nice original material that would suit this occasion."

After Gerry and Renee met in 2003, the two struck up a friendship and The Big River Band was formed.

Since then various full time musicians have joined the group which performs jazz, swing, pop, rock, soul, Motown, country, and ballroom.

And with six gigs already lined up for 2016, Renee believes the future looks bright for The Big River Band.

"It is just such a thrill to see people enjoying themselves and when they are having a good time because of our music and performances. There is nothing quite like it," Renne said.

"Also, Gerry teaches ukulele and guitar whilst I perform as a solo artist sometimes and also work as a TV/film background artist from time to time.

"However, my main claim to fame was working as a singer on BBC1 TV with Vanessa Mae on a program called The Making of Me.

The gig starts at 8.30pm and will run into the early hours the following morning. Go to thefishatsuttoncourteney.co.uk for more details.

New Generation i20 will take to the track for next year's World Rally Championship

Hyundai unveils 2016 rally car

HYUNDAI has kick-started excitement for the 2016 World Rally Championship (WRC) by unveiling its new car

The New Generation i20 WRC was shown off in front of a crowd of 200 people at the team's factory in Alzenau, Germany on December 9.

Since its foundation laying year in 2013, the team quickly developed a brand new WRC car from scratch for its first season of competition.

The new car is the result of the Hyundai Motorsport's evolution two years ago.

Team principal Michel Nandan said: "We should now raise our objectives to be more confident to fight at the front.

"The competition remains strong and we know our manufacturer rivals will not ease in their pursuit for victory but we want to take the fight to them in 2016."

Hyundai Motorsport will field three cars in every round of the 2016 Championship, with Dani Sordo, Hayden Paddon and Thierry Neuville all confirmed for a full season.

By James Richings

From Monte Carlo in January to a new look season finale in Australia, the trio of drivers will race the #3, #4 and #20 cars during the season.

Sordo said: "I have a lot of faith in the New Generation i20 WRC which is a car with a completely new philosophy compared to the one we've used up to now - better and faster, with a good engine and chassis."

All three were at the launch earlier this month.

Paddon said: "With the combination of the new car and another year of experience under our belts, I am confident we can fight at the front, especially in the gravel events.

"In the tests we have carried out so far, the car has been a big step up."

Neuville added: "2015 was a difficult year for me as I had some bad luck and made some mistakes.

"However, I have come out of it stronger and I am motivated and eager to start the season with our New Generation i20 WRC really well."

SPORT REVIEW 2015

Football

Sport reporter Loughlan Campbell looks back at the thrills and spills that shaped Oxfordshire's sporting calendar over the past 12 months

This year has seen a variety of widely-contested contests as Oxfordshire sides in all sports have excelled in their various fields

ACROSS the divisions Oxfordshire football fans were treated to seasons of highs and lows

In the higher leagues, Oxford United of League Two stormed to lead the table as the club headed into Christmas fixtures and their cross-city neighbours Oxford City continued their fight to get promotion to the National Conference.

Michael Appleton's side had a storming start to the 2014-15 season after managing to fend off relegation the previous season

Whilst Justin Merritt's Bluee finished sixth last season and carried that form into the new season keeping themselves in with a shout at promotion by maintaining a position in the top three

In the Southern League Division One South & West Didcot Town and Oxfordshire rivals North Leigh both just missed out on the play-offs finishing seventh and eighth respectively

Both sides have enjoyed a successful season so far with Didcot enjoying cup runs whilst the Millers are competing at the top of the league

Didcot promoted player Andy Ballard to manager after Ian Connon and Jamie Heapy left.

Wantage Town managed to stave off relegation before manager Daniel Barry departed earlier this season and was replaced in the interim by captain Stuart Cattell.

Abingdon United also saw a managerial change as they avoided relegation on the final day of the Hellenic Premier League and Gary Ackling departed the club to be replaced by Steve Alman who has struggled to get results for the U s

Other sports

IN Ice Hockey Oxford City Stars underwent a disappointing 2014/15 season finishing in ninth out of ten teams in the NtHL Division 1 only finished above basement boys Cardiff Devils by a single point.

The Stars have since been in better form this year picking up a few wins and currently sit around mid table in the league

In American Football, Oxford Saints failed in a crushing 50-13 defeat to Sussex Thunder in the Division II South West Conference Play offs

The Saints were without star quarterback Ben Denton for the encounter but had a stunning run up in their conference up until the match

Also in Women s Football, Oxford United Women performed admirably in WSL 2, finishing sixth in their league, making a marked improvment on their ninth place showing the previous year

Finally Oxford Hockey Club s men e and women s team have both suffered a bit of mixed start to the season.

Rugby

FOLLOWING a three year occupancy at the Kassam Stadium in a ground share with Oxford United London Welsh announced their departure from Oxford on June 26

The Exiles revealed they would be moving to their former ground of Old Deer Park in Richmond for the 2015 16 Championship season

The move followed a hugely underwhelming campaign in the Aviva Premiership where the Welsh had failed to win a single match and lost every single game conceding 1021 points over the course of 12 games, not even scoring a bonus try point.

It became quite publicised through the season that the Exiles had been underfunded in comparison to other Premiership teams with some arguing that the Exiles were not on a level playing field.

Welsh manager Justin Burnell departed the club in March and Rowland Phillips also Welsh took the reins

As the Exiles parted their chairman Bleddyn Phillips spoke of how the support of the club was not what Welsh had hoped for following their departure

He said "We need to recognise that perhaps the degree of support both in terms of ground attendance and commercial sponsorship may not have been quite as extensive as we might have hoped or wished for"

However the club also thanked the support of the Oxford rugby community and said that their new fanbase is welcome at Old Deer Park

Meanwhile in Rugby League, Oxford RL finished their 2015 season on 14 points winning seven of their 14 games scoring 453 points but conceding 946 points over the course of the year in the Kingstone Press League 1.

In the South West 1 East Witney finished in fifth last season on 41 points, while Grove ended up in 10th on 55 points

Oxford Harlequins joined the league for the 2015 16 season and have made a solid start whilst Witney continue to bid for promotion whilst Grove continue to struggle for form in the league though all sides seem to be safe from the relegation zone

Formula One

GROVE BASED Williams Martini Racing kept their 2014 form going into 2015 as they once again finished third in the Formula One constructors championship

Valtteri Bottas and Felipe Massa picked up four podiums between them to end the season fifth and sixth respectively in the drivers standings

Their most memorable moment came at Silverstone when both Massa and Bottas starting third and fourth on the grid leapfrogged the dominant Mercedes duo to take the lead at their home grand prix

And while their speed tailed off towards the end of the season they were comfortably ahead of 2010 to 2013 championship winners Red Bull in the final standings

Up the road in Enstone it was a more turbulent season for Lotus F1 as they dealt with problems off the track.

The team struggled with finances for much of the year and concerns raised about whether they would see out the season

But their future now seems secure after French car manufacturer Renault agreed a deal to buy back the team they previously owned from 2002 to 2009

On track, Romain Grosjean's third-place finish at the Belgian Grand Prix in August was by far the highlight in what would prove to be his final year with the team before moving to Haas F1 for next season

His team mate Pastor Maldonado also put in some solid performances to score points on six occasions although his year was blighted by mechanical problems and the odd clash with other drivers

And there was also sadness as Jules Bianchi, who raced for the Banbury based Marussia team in 2014, died from severe head injuries sustained at that year s Japanese Grand Prix in July

Didcot's epic FA Cup run saw thousands head to Exeter tie

AFTER getting past five rounds of qualification Didcot Town faced off against League Two side Exeter City in a David versus Goliath old fashioned epic first round FA Cup tie on November 6 which was televised live by BT Sport

The Loop Meadow stadium saw its largest ever attendance with 2 707 fans walking through the gates for the cold Autumn lunch time kick off

Both sides experienced nervy starts and the Oxfdy fans were dreaming of the impossible after the Railwaymen held off the Grecians for a 0-0 score at half time

However once the teams headed out for the second half the floodgates opened in the Didcot goal despite the superb efforts of keeper Leigh Bedwell

A goal early on in the half from Clint Morrison was followed by a bundled in effort from Tom Nicholls before Alex Nicholls tapped the ball in, sealing a final score of 3 0

The Diddy had their chances to have their say in the final outcome but Josh Dutton Black was unable to get a shot away when one on-one, and Jimmy Organ hit the crossbar late on.

Despite the result, then joint-manager Ian Concannon was delighted with the efforts of his team and said, "The lads can be very proud of their achievements. Our run and experience in this competition has been fantastic and is also great for the players and the fans."

The match was arguably the club's biggest game in 10 years and saw the club pocket just over £60 000 from just the TV coverage alone

Club chairman John Bailey said back in November that the club could invest in a new 3G all weather pitch for the club

He said at the time "We've had our finances stretched over the last few years and this opportunity promises to be a real lifeline for the club

It seems fair to say that for some Didcot fans, the contest was a once-in a lifetime affair but with the new cash injection, Didcot could go anywhere.

Pepperell's big masters showing

"IT S what dreams are made of."

These were the words of Abingdon golfer Eddie Pepperell who caught the nation's eyes in the 144th Open Championship at St Andrews in July

The Frilford Heath starlet completed a sensational third round during the tournament which saw him shoot up the leaderboard to tie for the lead in the third day

The 24 year old couldn't hold on to his position however, as his game tapsed and he ended up finishing the tournament four-over-par in joint 49th position overall

Following the dramatic weekend, he said at the time "To play golf on the biggest of all stages at St Andrews in an Open Championship is truly what dreams are made of.

"The nice messages and compliments I received after that round gave me great confidence It's sometimes hard to see yourself objectively and so reading and hearing those words must mean that I have some good things going for me

Pepperell moved to a career high ranking of 68 in the world following his performance at the KLM Open in Holland in September

Over the course of the 2015 season Pepperell brought in £777 143 to his bank account, playing 23 points- with his average finishing position coming in at 56th

Smith secures top six Moto GP finish

BRADLEY Smith declared his sixth place finish "fantastic" as he finished his third MotoGP World Championships season

Smith was in a joyous mood after completing the 30-lap sprint in Valencia on November 13

The 24 year old concluded the sprint with a sixth-place finish with the Monster Yamaha Tech3 rider securing 161 points over the course of the season finishing as the leading satellite rider

The rider secured a second place finish at the San Marino Grand Prix marking his highest finish in MotoGP

The Oxford rider achieved several high finishes with a fourth-place finish in Malaysia and two five place finishes in Italy and Catalunya

Smith's overall sixth place finish sees a continued improvement in his standings over the years after he finished 16th in 2013 and 8th last year

He said following the season's conclusion, "It's been a fantastic season and almost perfect and I can't be hard on myself as I ended up in the top six.

"I am very proud of this but I am especially pleased with my performance in the second half of the season."

Resurgent Millers go on winning run

NORTH Leigh went on a blistering seven match winning run at the start of their Southern League Division One South & West campaign this season

Mark Gee's side's string of victories was nothing short of remarkable as they scored 36 goals in all competitions over the course of 12 games from August to September

The Millers led the table for a considerable time with the attacking quartet of Kieran Sanders, Morgan Williams, Elliot Osborne-Ricketts and Callum McNish fast becoming the most prolific scoring group in the entirety of their league

Gee's team only suffered two defeats in all competitions over the course of 17 games spanning three months in a remarkable run of form

The manager said at the time of his side's unbeaten run "It's been a really great start. We've worked the ball well and our attacking prowess has been fantastic

"There is no doubting the ability of these players and it's always nice to get points on the board early on but we're not going to let ourselves get carried away with it."

The highlights of the run came with the 7 0 demolishing of Cove in early qualifying round of the FA Cup and the double wins over Slimbridge in the league and then again in the FA Cup scoring eight goals over the course of the two contests

North Leigh's strong run was broken in October following three consecutive defeats to Cinderford Town, Winchester City and Cirencester Town.

SPORT REVIEW 2015 INSIDE

From low lying to high flying: One year at Oxford United FC

U'S 2015 REVIEW

IT'S been one incredible year for Oxford United as Michael Appleton s side has gone from rags to riches

The U's started the year lying in 16th place in the Sky Bet League Two, facing the prospect of a relegation battle

A 2-1 defeat to Cheltenham Town at the Kassam Stadium on January 3 signalled the start of a difficult few months in which the U s won only one game in eight however their fortunes started to turn around April.

Appleton s boys stopped losing grabbing quick draws or convincing wins, and some crucial signings in the summer saw United reinforced into a dynamic talented and formidable side.

By Loughlan Campbell

Rising star Callum O Dowda came to the fore star signing Kemar Roofe saw his profile rise with some jaw dropping goals and performances and midfield signings Liam Sercombe and John Lundstram became the core of the United side

Hundreds of United fans headed to Austria for a friendly with SC Wiener Neustadt before the Yellows began their season with an undefeated league run of six games

The U s put in a blinder in August with a shock 4 0 win at Brentford in the first round of the League Cup and scoring seven goals in three games put them into the Southern Area Final of the Johnsen's Paint Trophy

United also put themselves in the FA Cup Third Round setting themselves up nicely to face Premier League side Swansea City in January

Appleton s men's form really kicked into gear in late September with the U's picking up four wins from six games including a 1 0 win over Plymouth Argyle in October

At last they reached the holy grail the top spot on November 28 with a 1 0 win te Hartlepool United away

Whilst the year's start was ominous it's conclusion has been nothing but positive with the U s fighting on three fronts and the prospect of promotion almost tangible to touch in 2016

Here s to a fantastic year for Oxford United!
